Nevertheless, you can find and book promotions designed for any market, regardless of your country of residence, on the targeted market section of the Website or by calling our Central Reservation Office.

I.4 Formation of contract

On the telephone, your reservation number is communicated to you by the Central Reservation Office's counsellor upon completion of the booking process and is then addressed to you by post or e-mail.

On the Website, your reservation number is displayed on the confirmation screen after validation of payment and is then addressed to you by e-mail.

When dealing through a travel agent, your reservation number is communicated to you by your travel agent and is indicated in the contract between you and your travel agent.

The contract is binding on all members of the party identified in the booking who accept without reservation these booking terms and conditions, and commit to comply with all internal regulations in force at Disneyland® Paris and all instructions or notices set forth in our brochure, on the Website or in any other document issued by Euro Disney. I.5 Prices – Alteration of prices

Prices of our Holiday Packages and Separate Services for the period from March 21st 2018 to November 6th, 2018 have been determined on the basis of the existing economic conditions on the date of establishment of the prices in Euro on June 28th, 2017. The applicable prices after that period have not yet been determined at the time of publication of these booking terms and conditions and will be made available ahead of sales opening for the concerned period; please contact your reservation agent or visit the Website for more information.

We reserve the right to amend our prices at any time before you book your Holiday Package or Separate Services, subject to your being advised of the total cost prior to booking.

We reserve the right to alter the total amount of your booking by applying the relevant fluctuation rate to the concerned element of your booking. Any increase will be notified to you in writing and you may elect to cancel or confirm your reservation in accordance with the provisions of Article R. 211-9 of the Code of Tourism reproduced hereafter.

In any case, no such increases will be made within thirty (30) days of your arrival date at Disneyland® Paris ("Arrival Date"), or of your departure date, meaning the date of commencement of transport* ("Departure Date") if transport* is included.

II.1.9 – Insurance

We can arrange an insurance cover to protect you with a French insurance company, AWP P&C, 7 rue Dora Maar - 93400 Saint-Ouen Cedex, France (privately held company governed by the provisions of the French Insurance Code – RCS Bobigny 519 490 080). The guarantees under the contract will be provided by AWP France S.A.S. having a share capital of € 7.584.076,86 and having its registered office at 7 rue Dora Maar - 93400 Saint-Ouen, France (insurance brokerage firm – RCS Bobigny 490 381 753 – Registration ORIAS 07 026 669 – <http://www.orias.fr>).

The insurance contract is subject to the insurance conditions of AWP P&C/MONDIAL ASSISTANCE. The insurance cover must be requested and the insurance premium must be paid immediately at the time of booking your holiday.

The insurance contract is not transferable. Insurance premiums are not refundable. Children under 3 years old are protected under such insurance provided that such insurance cover has been taken out by the adults accompanying such children.

However, in the event of a distance booking including insurance cover of more than one month duration (from the effective date of the insurance cover until the end of your holiday) OR in the event that you justify being already covered for the same risks, you may cancel your insurance contract within a period of 14 days from the time the contract has been concluded, following which we will reimburse your insurance premium UNLESS during this 14 day period the performance of the contract has been completed at your express request or you have invoked one of the guarantees under your contract.

Please check that you do not already have such cover prior to taking out any of our proposed insurance policies.

Your right to withdraw can be exercised through a written request using the contact details provided in clause II.1.1.3. The insurance premiums will be refunded within 30 calendar days following receipt of that request.

II.1.10 – Transport*

• Where you have ordered hard transport tickets, you are requested to inform us or your travel agent should you not have received the hard transport tickets six (6) days prior to your Departure Date. If the hard transport tickets cannot be sent to the address that you or your travel agent has indicated or if you fail to inform us or your travel agent in due time that the hard transport tickets have not been received, we reserve the right to charge a 17 € fee per booking for issuing and sending duplicate tickets.

• In case of damages or claims of all natures, the liability of carriers featured in our brochure or on the Website, including air carriers, and the liability of their representatives, agents and employees, is limited to the transport of passengers and their baggage exclusively as specified in their travel terms and conditions in compliance with any international conventions and/or community regulations defining their liability, in particular Regulations n° 2027/97/EC, 889/2002/EC and 261/2004/EC.

• Unused transport tickets, whether outbound or return, are non refundable. The same applies in case of theft or loss of tickets in case you are obliged to buy replacement tickets at your own expense.

• In case of force majeure, the carrier reserves the right to carry passengers by any other transport means of its choice with proper care, without this incurring any right of compensation for concerned passengers.

Notice: schedules and vehicle types are featured in the brochure for indicative purposes only and they are subject to changes before a contract is entered into.

• For reasons beyond our control, a change of airport may occur in Paris (Roissy CDG or Orly). Thus, our company may not be held responsible for any cost resulting from such change.

• Rebates offered by carriers, whether resulting from a commercial offer or from social benefits, are not cumulative with the Holiday Packages featured in the brochure or on the Website.

- Please note that we are unable to guarantee seating together while travelling.
- Where air transport* is included in your Holiday Package, official personal photographic identity papers or passport of each passenger, including children, whether paying or not, are required at check-in.
- Euro Disney may not be held responsible for your failure to check-in at the point of departure of your holiday, whether resulting from your own delay or no show, a delay in a pre-trip, whether by air, train or road, that was not organised by Euro Disney, or your failure to present the identification and/or proof of compliance with health requirements for your journey. In such event, 100% (one hundred percent) of the amount of your booking including transport* will be withheld.

The tour operator's brochure or e-brochure and summary holiday offer constitute the prior information to be provided pursuant to Article R. 211-4 of the Code of Tourism.

Art. R. 211-3 – Subject to the exclusions specified in subsections 3 and 4 of Article L. 211-7, appropriate documents shall be supplied, in compliance with the rules defined hereinafter, for any offer or sale of services concerning travel arrangements or stays.

In the event of customised transport, the name and address of the carrier for whom the tickets are issued must be stated.

Separate invoicing of the various constituents of one and the same travel package does not relieve the seller of his/her obligations prescribed herein.

Art. R. 211-3-1 – Exchange of pre-contractual information or the availability of contractual conditions is carried out in writing. This may take place by electronic means under conditions of validity and performance as provided for in Articles 1369-1 to 1369-11 of the Civil Code. In this case, the seller shall clearly indicate to what extent such changes may be made and in what areas. Under all circumstances, changes made to preliminary information must be communicated to the consumer before the contract is signed.

Art. R. 211-6 – The contract signed between the seller and the buyer must be in written form, drawn up in two original copies with one copy delivered to the buyer, and must bear the signature of both parties. 13. The deadline for the seller to inform the buyer of the cancellation of travel or stay if the organisation thereof is contingent on the existence of a minimum number of participants, in accordance with the provisions laid down in paragraph 7 of Article R. 211-4 herein above;
14. Contractual terms and conditions for cancellation;
15. Terms and conditions prescribed below under Articles R. 211-9, R. 211-10 and R. 211-11;

17. Information concerning seller's subscription to an insurance policy (policy number and name of insurer) covering the consequences of certain cases of cancellation, as well as information concerning the insurance policy covering certain special risks and especially repatriation expenses in the event of accident or sickness; the seller shall in this case provide the buyer with a document that shall at least stipulate risk coverage and exclusions.
18. Deadline for informing the seller should the buyer decide to assign the contract;
19. The seller's commitment to supply the following information at least ten (10) days before the scheduled date of departure:

21. The commitment to supply the buyer, in due time before commencement of travel or stay, with the times of departure and arrival.

Art. R. 211-7 – The buyer may transfer his/her contract to an assignee fulfilling the same requirements as the buyer with respect to the travel arrangements or stay, provided that the contract has not yet taken effect.

Unless stipulations are more favourable for the assignee, the latter is required to inform the seller of his/her decision by all means enabling reception of an acknowledgement of receipt at least seven (7) days before commencement of travel. This deadline shall be extended to fifteen (15) days in the case of cruises.

Under no circumstances shall the transfer call for authorisation from the seller.

Art. R. 211-8 – Should the contract expressly specify the possibility of a price revision within the limits prescribed in Article L. 211-12, the contract shall indicate the exact method of calculation for prices revised upwards or downwards, and especially the amount of transport expenses and related taxes, the currency(ies) liable to affect the price of travel or stay, the portion of the price that is subject to this change, and the rate of the currency(ies) used as a benchmark for drawing up the price stated in the contract.

Art. R. 211-9 – In cases where, prior to the buyer's departure, the seller is either obliged to alter any of the essential constituents of the contract, such as a significant price increase or does not comply with its obligations pursuant to paragraph 13 of Article R. 211-4, the buyer may take the following steps, notwithstanding any claims for compensation of any damages sustained and after having notified the seller of these steps by all means enabling reception of an acknowledgement of receipt:

- either rescind the contract and obtain, without any penalty, immediate repayment of amounts paid; or
- agree to the change or replacement trip proposed by the seller, in which case the parties shall sign a supplementary agreement stipulating the changes made; any price decrease is to be deducted from any outstanding payments to be made by the buyer and, if the payments already made exceed the price of the new services, amounts paid in excess shall be refunded to the buyer before the date of departure;

Art. R. 211-10 – In the case provided for under Article L. 211-14, should the seller cancel the trip or stay prior to the buyer's departure, the seller shall inform the buyer thereof by all means enabling reception of an acknowledgement of receipt. The seller shall then immediately refund the buyer for all amounts paid, with no penalties, and notwithstanding any claims for compensation of damages that may have been sustained. In this event, the buyer shall receive an indemnity that shall be at least equal to the penalty that would have been payable by the buyer if the buyer had instigated the cancellation at that date.

The provisions laid down in this Article do not in any manner prevent friendly settlements wherein the buyer agrees to a replacement trip or stay proposed by the seller.

Art. R. 211-11 – In the event that, after the buyer's departure, the seller is unable to supply a preponderant portion of the services stipulated in the contract and representing a significant percentage of the price honoured by the buyer, the seller must immediately take the following steps without prejudice to any claims for compensation of damages that may have been sustained:

- either propose replacement services for the services to be provided initially, with all additional costs being borne by the seller; if the services accepted by the buyer are of lower quality, the seller shall then be obliged to refund the buyer for the difference in price upon buyer's return; or
- if the seller is unable to propose any replacement services or if such replacements are rejected by the buyer for good reasons, the seller shall at no extra cost provide the buyer with transport tickets enabling the buyer to return, under conditions that are deemed equivalent, to the place of departure or to any other location agreed upon between the two parties

The provisions of this Article are applicable in the event of non-observance of the obligation envisaged to the 13° of Article R. 211-4.
